LANDER, Wyo., Aug. 24.—Pursuant to a call for a free coinage mass meeting at the court house, Wednesday of a man till he reached this world. evening, the 19th, the court room was well filled at an early hour. Mat. Boorland was elected chairman and the meeting called to order. Charley Allen was called for—and Charley is ready to talk on the silver question at any and all times. Charley plays the tuba in the band and was about out of wand, but he came to the front and for the next hour held the audience spellbound. After Mr. Allen's address, steps were taken to effect a permanent organization—known as the Bryan and Sewall Free Coinnage club.

About 5:45 this morning, a shot was heard, but no particular attention was paid to it, as it is a common occurrence. William Jones, sr., was not over 100 feet from the hotel and heard the shot, and at the same time saw some pigeons fly up in the street in front of the building and supposed some one had shot at the birds, and paid no more attention to it. Several others heard the shot and thought nothing of it. About 10 o'clock mought mothing of it. About 10 o'clock a man was sent with some water to the rooms and found Mr. Rogers as above stated, with the revolver still in his hand. The sad news was immediately sent to his family and relatives, and after the inquest the body was taken charge of by the undertaker, W. S. Firestone.
